The Sunshine, from Cincinnati arrived here at noon enroute to Memphis. She was heavily loaded and lay here several hours receiving and discharging freight.

The Dick and Joe Fowler were out on time this morning and each carried nice freight receipts. The former was out for Cairo at 8:30 while the latter cleared for Evansville at 10 o'clock.

Business was very good down about the wharf this morning, there being considerable river traffic transacted. The local packets all arrived and departed with good freight trips.

The big harbor tug Ida was taken out on the dry docks yesterday afternoon for some slight repairs to be done on her stern. She is expected to be put in again tomorrow.

Messrs. Wyatt and Green, local inspectors, arrived here from Nashville this morning and inspected Capt. Sam Walker's new boat, which leaves immediately for the upper Cumberland river.

The Clyde leaves this afternoon for the upper Tennessee river. She lay over at Brooklyn last night and this forenoon discharging a big lot of lumber. She is expected to be here this afternoon receiving freight for this afternoon's departure.

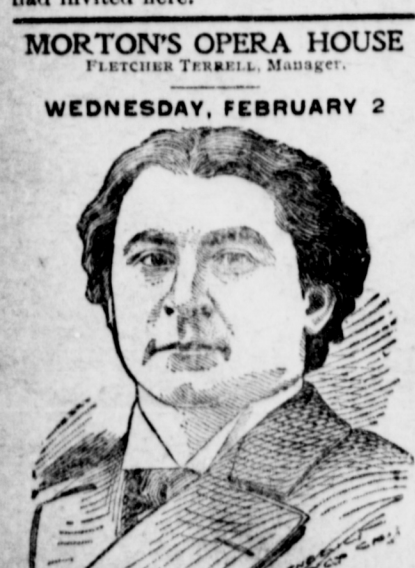

The rise in the river here last night was similar to the one of night before last and yesterday being only one-tenth. The gauge showed 43.5 this morning at 7 o'clock and gradually coming higher. The prospects are that all the rise has reached here and the river will be going back now on short notice.

Capt. King Hale, of the steamer Clyde, said this morning that last Tuesday and Wednesday were the windiest days that he ever experienced on the Tennessee river, and it was with difficulty that the boat could land. Of all the many trips that the captain has made up that stream the last two were the worst, the river being unusually rough with a strong wind blowing constantly.

STREET CARS STOPPED.

By a Drunken Rural Youth, of Graves County.

He Laid Down on the Track and Wouldn't Move.

Robert, Hutchinson, a youth from Graves county, stopped the Broadway electric cars this afternoon. He probably enjoys distinction in the novel role he assumed. He was full of bad whiskey, and Motorman Young found him lying across the track. He refused to clear the way for the car, declaring that there were not enough men in Paducah to take him off. The motorman decided not to disturb him, and telephoning for an officer, turned back. No cars went further than the house of prostitution after that. They met and turned back. Officers Hoyer and Gray went out and took forcible possession of him, and opened the way for the cars. They had a continued scuffle with him all the way to the city hall, where he was locked up on a charge of drunkenness.

IN JUSTICE'S TEMPLE.

Entertaining Session of Judge
Sanders' Court This Morning—Several Fined.

A Man From Cairo Up for Breach of Ordinance—All Kinds of Cases Now on Deck.

There was an interesting session of Judge Sanders' court today. One of the most amusing cases was against Frederick Keeler, of Cairo, charged with violating market ordinance No. 5, by purchasing meat by the wholesale before 8 o'clock for the purpose of exportation. He bought several hogs and shipped them to Cairo on the Fowler this morning. He talked with a distinct accent and was almost as deaf as a post. He stated that he had often bought here and had spent thousands of dollars here, but it was the first time he had ever been arrested for buying. He expressed regret that he was not familiar with the market laws.

"Dey ort to haf a plackboard mit de rules on it," he said.

"Well, if you consult the mayor and council, maybe they will have the ordinance put on blackboards for your benefit," observed the court, with a smile. He then expatiated on the market laws in general, and declared that if a Philadelphia lawyer or anybody else could read them and find out just what they mean, he would like to see him and see just what he looks like. He heard part of the evidence against Keeler, whereupon the latter jumped up and said he wanted time to get a lawyer if they were going to have a trial.

Judge Sanders replied at length, and there was a general laugh, after he had finished, when Keeler arose with one hand over his ear and exclaimed, "I gannot hear a word, I am deaf!"

The court expressed sorrow, and continued the case. The defendant went up, and Judge Sanders shouted so he could hear, that he was going to continue the case to give him time to get a lawyer, and wanted him to get a good one.

"When I was a young man," he concluded, "I used to go to dances, and then a fellow would come along with a hat and we would all chip in. That was to pay the fiddler."

"Ya, ya," answered the defendant, who evidently perceived the analogy, "I haf baid de fiddler many a dime!" He gave bond to appear Monday.

Isadore Herring, a notorious colored woman, was charged with using insulting language on the streets. She said the other woman "cussed her" and she cussed her back.

"Isadore Herring," mused the court, "that name has been grating on my ears ever since I've been in office. I'll require you to execute a $100 bond for your good behavior, and if you fail I'll send you to jail for six months." As Isadore could not execute bond for one dollar, she went to jail, where she will be kept for some time, if not for six months.

Charles Young and Laura Porter, colored, were charged with a breach of the peace. This twain had the whole vicinity near Sixth and Clay streets aroused last night by their disgraceful disturbance. The man pleaded to striking her, and she replied, when asked to plead, that she was "guilty of hollering." Her right eye was completely closed. He was fined $30 and costs and the woman $20 and costs.

Ben Hatch was fined $1 and costs for drunkenness.

Will Lewis, colored, of Covington, was charged with stealing a hat from Harvey Buford and selling it to a second-hand dealer. He said he bought it from a "tall yellow man who don't live here." The hat was stolen from Mrs. W. H. Brian's yesterday afternoon. He was held for petty larceny.

Dave Reed, colored, fireman at the Gas works, who was shot by Mrs. Cal Waggoner, was presented on a charge of trespass, and the case was continued.

It was Reed's first time out since he was shot. He stated to a reporter that he was sober when shot, and that he went to Mrs. Waggoner's simply to tell her that her husband's boat was sinking, so that she might notify him to save it. He claims he meant no harm.

MORE TROUBLE

In the Yeltima Family—Husband and Wife Arrested.

Mrs. Maud Yeltima, who filed suit for divorce several days ago against her husband, Alex Yeltima, appeared at the city hall this morning about 9 o'clock with a badly swollen face. She stated to Judge Sanders that she went home, not knowing that Yeltima was there and he attacked her with a stick, badly beating her. She swore out a warrant and he was arrested.

It was an entirely different story that he told. He said he was at home peacefully slumbering when she broke in and attacked him with a stick and badly beat him up. He swore out a warrant against her, and she was arrested. He went to the lockup in default of bond, and she executed bond for her appearance. The course of their love has never run smooth, and several times since they married have they exemplified their feelings toward one another in a manner somewhat similar to that revealed by today's warrants.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 1898

The average Daily Circulation of the Sun for the year 1897 was 1589 copies, as shown by the daily records of the office and proved by the sworn affidavits of four responsible men.

The Sun claims the largest circulation of any daily paper in Paducah. From the day of its first issue it has made its circulation public and asks its advertisers to make a complete investigation of its circulation books at any time. No other paper in Paducah will state its circulation.

The Hon. J. Dennis Macquett is a man of remarkable imagination. He gave as a reason for voting against the resolution asking Senator Lindsey to resign that he did it "in the interest of conservatism."

We fail to see where our honored representative could catch onto any ideas of "conservatism." Certainly not at Frankfort.

POPULISM seems to be running riot in the Kentucky Legislature. Of course the statesmen, who are now drawing their per diems and going gunning for gold Democrats and corporations, are in fact Democrats.

But the line of demarcation between Democracy, or Bryanism, and Populism is too fine for this legislature to discern and that body has fallen wholly on the side of Populism.

Thus our lawmakers propose that the books that our children shall study must first be selected and approved by the State; our railroads can no longer regulate their own freight charges, but must look for their rate cards to the State; the large news distributing corporations can no longer serve the papers they desire to do business with, but must accept any customer that comes in the name of the state.

If our United States Senators happen to disagree with this august but slightly presumptuous body, they are asked to resign forthwith. It must make an old line Populist turn green with envy to see this alleged Democratic majority appropriating every Populist vagary that it can lay its hands on.

ALL honor to Miss Christae Bradley. Nothing could be more appropriate than the christening of the battleship Kentucky with a baptism of water from Abraham Lincoln's old Kentucky homestead. That historic spot is redolent with the sacred memories of the years of patient toil and hardship passed there by the widowed mother of Lincoln. All the sturdy and homely virtues that characterized the life of Abraham Lincoln; the devotion and courage of the mother, and the tender, filial love of her illustrious son would be symbolized by a flask of water from the old Kentucky home. Kentucky's whiskey is famous the world over. Her Blue Grass meadows have been immortalized in song and story. But the real pride and lasting honor of Kentucky is her long line of honored sons and daughters. There is a strength in Kentucky manhood and a sweetness in Kentucky womanhood that are as peculiar to her men and women as is the rich and mellow flavor that age can give only to a Kentucky distillation.

From the Breaks of the Sandy to the turbid waters of the Mississippi, every breeze that blows, whether from the forest clad mountain side or the richly cultivated plain, is laden with the incense of a people who have ever paid homage to those virtues that link mankind with immortality.

All honor to Miss Christine Bradley, one of the fairest of Kentucky's fair daughters.

THE M'CHORD BILL. The aggregation of political adventures that is now making laws for the Commonwealth of Kentucky is enacting legislation that is of the wildest import. Yesterday the Senate passed the M'Chord R. R. Commission bill, which gives to that commission the power to regulate freight rates within Kentucky. Democracy has scoffed at the Populistic idea of government ownership of railroads and yet the upper branch of this Legislature has passed a bill that is the next thing in principle to that Populistic notion. The bill would give the State power to regulate all freight charges in the State.

It seems to us that this Legislature is treading on dangerous ground. The Kansas theory of legislation is gaining too much in the South for the best interest of our Southern people. The South has wonderful natural resources. We have iron, coal, timber, cotton and other commercial raw products in vast quantities. Nature has done her best by the South, she now needs all the forms of commercial and industrial development that she can obtain to bring into her her extraordinary natural resources. Experience has proved that the establishment of commissions with arbitrary powers has always been attended with abuse of power. Corporations are absolutely necessary that the highest development may be reached. The degree of industrial progress today is almost in direct proportion to the amount of capital involved.

We believe that all corporations should be subjected to a wise and equitable governmental supervision, that their rights and privileges should be clearly defined and they should be required to comply with the law as laid down in their charters and all statutory provisions. But we do also believe that legislation enacted in a hostile spirit and in a prejudiced manner can ultimately be productive of nothing but evil.

The present Legislature of Kentucky is enacting legislation that is of such a character that if its effects are evil, they cannot be remedied for many years to come. At the best the legislation is of an experimental character. But Bryanism is in the saddle at Frankfort. The risks it is assuming and the chances of entailing disastrous consequences are great. In the meantime the people who elected a Populistic legislature under the guise of Democracy are getting some vivid object lessons—and so are the rest of the people.

TO BE NICKED IN LENT. Lenten maid, downcast, demure, Where are the smiles that were late Of those by their sweetness that sweet?

Is it writ you must forbear Smiling? Your eyes' light obscure? A nun it has turned you, and your House to a cloister, and sure All my life's happiness there Lent unmade.

Come, now, your posing is poor! Confess it, your thoughts are en tour— While your lips move through a prayer— To a gay some where? Your moods! This one's worse to endure— Lenten made.

—Edward W. Barnard.

"Make hay while the sun shines," is the motto of the society maiden at the present time. For soon that popular pastime known as Lent will be with us, and the booths of Vanity Fair will be draped with sack cloth and sprinkled with ashes. The wheels of the social machine that have been so merrily whirling will grow rusty, and all society will experience a restful period.

The coming week promises to be livelier than the last one. Besides the afternoon parties scheduled, the theater Wednesday evening will doubtless prove a pleasant diversion of the week.

A VISITOR ENTERTAINED. On Friday afternoon at the Leech residence on North Fourth street Miss Martha Leech entertained a small number of friends at croquet in honor of Miss Georgia Warren, of Evansville, Miss Clara Thompson's guest. The first prize, a pretty plate, Miss Kate Cobb won. Miss Warren captured the booty, an after "snack" and saucer.

Mrs. Hills is this afternoon entertaining in honor of Miss Warren, of Evansville.

Mrs. King Brooks entertains on Wednesday afternoon of next week, at croquet, at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Brooks, of Seventh street.

Mrs. Lloyd Boswell entertains on Tuesday afternoon of next week, complimentary to Miss Georgia Warren.

FASHION FANCIES. Black fox fur edging, jet and bright red brocade silk finish a yoke cape of rich black velvet.

A jeweled pin, similar to a safety pin in shape, is worn to fasten up the curling locks at the nape of the neck.

Black satin, finely tucked, makes very pretty belts to wear with separate waists. Fasten them with a fancy buckle or a knot of satin.

A half worn light silk waist may be very satisfactorily refurbished by stripping it crosswise with black velvet ribbon, putting velvet ribbon around the plain collar band as previously described, and adding a new chemise neck of lace and velvet belt.

Black net gowns elaborately trimmed with jet and made over white or black silk are the most fashionable of all the dressy costumes for women who are no longer young.

Accorded platted velvet skirts set on a deep yoke, with a rounded point in front covered with heavy lace, either beaded or plain, are the latest extravagance in this department of dress.

It is said with great confidence that sleeves will not reach perfect tightness during the winter. In almost every instance there will be some kind of a trimming at the top of the sleeves in the shape of caps, frills or ruffles. Many of the new gowns have sleeves trimmed just at the elbow and others are neatly trimmed at the wrist with twists of ribbon, bands of velvet and some of the light weight materials show rounded at the wrist, revealing the arm at the inside, and are finished with a puffing of the same material, or chiffon, lace or soft silk.

MUFFS OF MANY KINDS. The fashionably gotten up women coming toward one who is unfamiliar with fashion's caprices presents a rather formidable appearance with what looks to be a huge fox or sable curled up in her arms, says the Woman's Home Companion. But upon closer inspection the beast proves to be a muff, made from the entire skin of the animal, which is indeed, an awful. The head rests easily to the left and the tail hangs to the right.

Small muffs, it is quite life like. The smaller muffs are more fanciful in shape and take on much trimming other than fur. The first one shown is of black warden, being ornamented in front with one head and three tails, and made for utility as well as ornament, having a purse and handkerchief pocket open at the back. The lining is of pale yellow satin, and extends in full double frills at each end. The second muf is of white fur, lined with black satin and ornamented with two white heads and large satin ribbon bows without ends, while the frills at the ends are made full, of the same material as the lining.

Jeweled effect, birds, pompons and flowers are still seen on the evening muffs, but those for street wear have a more substantial and useful look.

TROUBLE IN GRAVES. Father and Son Quarrel Over a Woman.

They are having a hot time in Pryorburg, Graves county, six miles south of Mayfield, over a woman of the neighborhood. As a result, B. W. Odum and two sons were arrested yesterday. Odum's wife left him on account of the woman living on their place, James Odum, one of the sons, quarreled with the father over the matter, and both emptied their pistols at each other. John Odum, another son, threatened to kill Joe Smith, son of the woman, if he did not leave the country. The affair has caused quite a stir in the little town, and more trouble is expected.

Was Without Foundation. The City of Chattanooga is out of the Tennessee river. On board of her Will Shaw and Jerry Overton came back. The report the first part of the week that Shaw had been stabbed to death by Overton proved to be false.

Supervisors in Graves. The county board of supervisors have been cussed all over the docket this week, by people whose lists they have raised and warned to come in and show why the changes should not be permanent, says the Mayfield Mirror.

A petition was circulated asking the legislature to abolish the law which does this. It was signed numerously, especially by all those whose lists had been altered by the board. One of the board, T. H. Cosby, by the way, whose list was also changed, said he would sign the petition, too, if presented to him. There were about 800 changes and it will take all week, if not longer, to hear the complaints.

1898 FALL.

The Pickler-Workman Case

Thrown Out of Court.

End of a Massac County Sensation at Metropolis.

The notorious damage suit of Pickler against Workman, for $5,000 damages for alienating the affections of the former's wife, was yesterday thrown out of court at Metropolis.

This odious case had its origin at Brooklyn several months ago, by a sensational saloon episode. It was recently tried at Metropolis, and a hung jury resulted.

Yesterday it was thrown out of court, and judging from opinion heard from residents of Massac county, no one regrets it, unless it is the plaintiff.

Populist for Congress. Elizabethtown, Ky., Jan. 29.—Mr. Jase Jones is spoken of as a possible candidate for congress. Mr. Jones is a straight-out, middle-of-the-road populist. He made the race for legislature last November against Mr. Charles Nelson.

Charged With Stealing Coal. Mayfield, Ky., Jan. 29.—The Illinois Central railroad has been losing considerable coal at this place lately. Detective James T. Gorley, for this company, had Carl King, a negro, of Mayfield, arrested this morning for stealing coal from the cars while passing through here. He has taken out warrants against a number of others.

Accused of the Felony. Princeton, Ky., Jan. 29.—Arthur Hollingsworth, who shot Louis Wharton, colored, some time ago, and who had his examining trial today, was acquitted.

The evidence showed that Wharton was advancing on Hollingsworth when he fired and that the killing was justifiable. The decision gave general satisfaction.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured
By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a running sound or deafness. It is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out of this tube restored to its normal condition hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is not an inflammatory condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

More About the Commercial
Congress—Sewerage Com-

Notes.

Mayor Lang is in receipt of another communication from Tampa, Fla., urging the appointment of delegates to the South and West Commercial Congress there on February 8, 9 and 10. Mayor Lang has appointed Dr. J. G. Brooks, Messrs. Ed. P. Noble, J. A. Bauer, D. A. Yeiser and Capt. Joe Johnson, and the probabilities are that several of them will attend. A rate of 1 1/2 fare has been offered by the railroads. The principal objects of the congress are to consider means to increase the interchange of all merchandise and manufactured articles between the south and the west and to promote the movement of grain and all other products of the western states to southern distributing markets and through southern ports for export.

All the governors, commercial organizations, municipal governments and transportation companies of the South and West have been requested to appoint delegates to this congress. A great many have already responded and the success of this congress is now assured. Excursions to points of interest on the Gulf of Mexico and other forms of entertainment will be provided for delegates and their friends. The congress will convene on Tuesday, Feb. 8, 1898, at the Tampa Bay hotel auditorium. The session will continue three days.

Mayor Lang received two more communications today relative to sewerage systems similar to the one under course of construction here. One from City Engineer W. T. Brook, of Norfolk, Va., stating that this system is a pronounced success, and most satisfactory, but perforated manhole caps are used. They are all supplied with galvanized dust pans, however.

The other letter is from Z. S. Westbrook, of Amsterdam, N. J., who states that their system is most successful and satisfactory, and has been in use since 1886. The manhole caps are solid, and solid caps are recommended by him as safest and best.
Mayor Lang stated to a reporter that one of the most convincing arguments against perforated caps is that the almost annual overflow of the river would in places flow into the mains through the man holes, and it would be impossible to pump it out.

A new method of dispensing charity to the poor people through the New Howards has been adopted by Mayor Lang.

Since he went into office, he has issued a great many orders to the New Howards for those in destitute circumstances, and Thursday some of the ladies told him he was "a good thing" for the more unscrupulous indigents. They had begun going to the New Howards and securing aid, and then going straight to the mayor for another order, thus getting double measure. When any one applies to the mayor now, he always first telephones the secretary of the Howards to ascertain if they had helped the applicant. This morning he caught one in this way, the applicant having just been assisted by the Howards.

Mayor Lang is temporarily installed in Marshal Collins' office, waiting for the new paint and paper in his office to dry. He returned last night from his trip down the N., C. & St. L.

The New Howards will be in regular session Monday afternoon.

Officer Tobe Etter, who once arrested Blanks, was sent over on the ferry boat.

THE MAYOR OF LINN.

Paine's Celery Compound Never Fails to Invigorate Him When Worn Out.

Mayor Ramsdell is again mayor of Linn.

Two years ago he was elected by the combined People's party, Democratic and Citizens' Reform party. He was again nominated by acclamation by the Democrats to succeed himself as mayor of the busy modern city, and was again elected by a rousing majority last month.

Mayor Ramsdell's present high position is the legitimate reward of his ability and his fearlessness in defending his opinions. He has never hesitated to declare his convictions in public, nor has he been slow to espouse the cause of the shoe-makers and other wage earners. In 1894 he was candidate of the People's party for Congress. A hard worker, a conscientious official, Mayor Ramsdell has more than once been pushed to the limit of his strength. At such times of extreme nervous tension and overwork, he has saved himself from breaking down by taking Paine's celery compound.

Mayor Ramsdell's honest opinion of this great remedy cannot be mistaken by any one who reads his letter that follows:

Harbour's

Second Week of Our Big Inventory Sale

There's more price-pruning done in this store just at this season than at any other time—not slap-dab, hap-hazard cuts, but deliberately intelligent reductions on such merchandise as we don't wish to carry from one season to another. People with dry goods money to spend can spend it here with the full assurance that their dollars will be given the very fullest limit of their buying power.

There's a lot of useful, reliable merchandise here, suited for immediate consumption, and you can buy it for less money than we did, simply for the reason that we would rather have the money in the till than the goods on our shelves when the season ends. There isn't a particle of buncombe in this kind of advertising, and it must appeal to your economy and common sense. Test the truth of it in the following lists:

DRESS GOODS REMNANTS.
With these were no short ends of dress goods, but it's unavoidable with such an outfit as we've got. Every last end of dress goods under eight yards has been weeded from the stock. Black or colored plain or fancy. They've been measured, ticketed and marked at prices that will immediately move them. Lots of good skirt and waist lengths among them. Lots of good skirt and waist lengths among them. They're all classified and spread out on the counters for easy selection.

BLACK DRESS GOODS
are being sacrificed with the rest. One piece $1.50 black fancy suitable for skirts, sacrificed for 60c a yard. The remaining stock of over $1.25 black granite cloth for 60c a yard. Inspect the black dress goods section for other special bargains and you'll not be disappointed.

KID GLOVE SACRIFICE.
$1 gloves in this sale for 70c a pair.
Hope bleach domestic at 5c a yard. Masonville, Fruit and Lonsdale for 6c a yard.

TABLE LINENS.
Two pieces 85c, bleach table Damask, special this week, for 50c a yard; actual measure 68 inches wide and couldn't be imported for our this week price.

SILK RIBBON SACRIFICE.
Nothing like it before. Silk ribbons 1 1/2 inches to 2 1/2 inches wide, should bring 20 to 25 cts. per yard, sacrifice price only 10c per yard.

IN OURS HOE DEPARTMENT.
Prices on broken lots are not considered. The only feature kept constantly in view is clearing them out. Every pair must go. The lucky purchaser gets a big slice off of the regular price:
Ladies' $3 shoe for $2.
Men's $2.25 shoe for $1.50.
Children's broken lot of school shoes at 75c and $1 a pair. Such prices are only possible when we are clearing out broken lots.
